travelling thru time way out past the stars the captain's lost his mind they say he's gone too far in the silence of the void and the bending of the light the journey never ends the engines burning bright fire the engines set the course take the ride touch the cold touch the deep and lose your mind barrelling thru space deep inside the mind in the silence of the void navigating blind lonely like the gods never slowing down lost along the curves never slowing down now i lay me down to sleep crimson pillow six feet deep where the small things blindly creep be not sad & do not weep blood moon rising in the sky what never lived can never die summoned from the earth this night the sleeping ones begin to rise

(Instrumental)

the corn has grown so high and the frost has come to bite the veil is lifted soon as foretold in dusty runes come my children wont you dance with the dead yes my children wont you dance with the dead the summer has bled dry and cruel comes the night the piper awaits the drum and the song of the ancient ones the leaves are falling to their doom a fog has settled on the moon the bones rattle in the cave and the wolves are crying out the names cat's eyes and rabbit's foot lavender and summer bells rose water and candle soot intensity, the shadows fell where were you then when the hammer dropped? i called you then so the rain would stop, but the spell was cast and i was lost coffee black and window pane daffodils in winter wine holding breath, these gripping hands to stir the pot for stopping time

(Instrumental)

sacrifice my servants all, my comfort in the dark sound the horn bend the knee, your king at last embarks harness the sun cloak the moon a king has died this day scorpion watch over him as he makes his way summon now my chariot, my helmet and my sword give my name to the child, place my gold deep in the stone jackal god take my blood, close my eyes clean my wounds bind my limbs take my heart, prepare my soul unlock the tomb whisper bloody visions wicked hearts beware too long dogma slavery, renounce the shackles, dare sister raven have you heard the news? brother wolverine change is coming soon today is the day we kill the gods tear down poison statues, hanging deadly kings rising, grasping for freedom, burning ancient things sister raven is there blood upon the wind? brother wolverine how does the end begin?

way past midnight and way below zero i had a little hankering for something green rode out in the blizzard to get a bag of white wizard the chronic was soothing but the weather turned mean we were miles from home base, frozen in a bad place the snow was piled up way above the wheels we had to call an assist, his dad got totally pissed was a long way to go for a simple deal on a sinners road the left hand path there's a toll to pay the devils wrath you cant outrun the horsemen black run like hell and don't look back sons of hell tonight we ride the winter roads hounds at our sides collecting souls for the black parade no man escapes the shadow blade death bears down on your trail breathless fear your senses fail we know your crimes you have been marked no one escapes the racing dark
